

Vote Yes on November 3

for Appraisal Reform Propositions 2, 3 & 5

Texas homeowners need your help to pass much needed appraisal reform into law. The following propositions on the ballot are:

Proposition 2 – Ensures that a residential property is appraised as a residential property, not a hypothetical value based on “highest and best use.”

Proposition 3 – Allows the state to have oversight of central appraisal districts and enforce uniform appraisals standards across the state.

Proposition 5 – Allows two or more adjoining appraisal districts to have a combined appraisal review board to ensure qualified and knowledgeable board members.

All propositions on the Nov. 3 ballot require a majority vote to amend the Texas Constitution.

Early Voting Begins October 19 and ends October 30
