TEXAS REALTORS

Job Description

Basic Function
Supports and develops web applications, work assigned help desk tickets and projects

Responsibilities
- Updates / modifies existing code, as assigned
- Writes new code, as assigned
- Tests all code before deployment for quality assurance
- Work help desk tickets to resolve issues in a timely manner
- Writes SQL queries to fulfill ad-hoc report request
- Performs other duties as assigned

Systems include
- Windows, VMWare, Linux, ColdFusion environment, React, SQL Server database environment, GitHub, WordPress, Amazon Web Services

Skills
- Customer service-oriented / high level of professionalism
- Excellent communication skills
- Effective time management/organizational skills
- Strong problem-solving/troubleshooting skills
- UI-UX design
- Analyzes code to find causes of bugs and revises programs
- Modifies and maintains software programs written by others
- Comfortable working in a team environment
- Basic understanding of software development life cycle concepts

Education/Training
- Bachelor's degree (Strongly preferred, but not mandatory / may be offset by work experience)
- Certifications desired

Experience
- 2 years programming experience in several of the following areas: ColdFusion, React, SQL, HTML, Javascript, PHP, CSS
- ColdFusion development experience preferable, but not required

Salary Range
- 52k-55k based on experience